

When someone says no: activity

This activity will help you practice what you learned in the 'When someone says no' exercise.

Meet Celine

Celine works at a library. The library has a bulletin board on the wall where people can hang posters for events. But the posters are all different and Celine doesn't think the bulletin board looks very nice. Instead, she thinks the library should make a big calendar that shows all the events. She tells her supervisor, Sora, about her great idea.

But Sora says, "Sorry, we can't do that. A calendar would cost too much money to make, and we don't have time to keep it updated. A bulletin board is easier." Celine feels frustrated. She thought her idea was really good.

Let's talk about it

- Have you ever had someone say no to your idea? How did it make you feel?
- What advice would you give to Celine to help her deal with her feelings?